HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
Hoofland's German Tonic.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
Is composed of the pure Juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts,) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
Those who have no objection to the combination of the bitters, as stated, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathising so closely as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:
Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.
The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigation and inquiries possesses true merit, is skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit these well known remedies—
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.
Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.
DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.
There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.
PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,
And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, will all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore to a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.
NOTICE.
It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; they are languid, devoid pression, never feel well, of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.
WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN,
Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail. Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.
TESTIMONIALS.
HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:
Philadelphia, March 18, 1767.
"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.
Yours, truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD."
HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.
"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."
FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and suitable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.
FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL.
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.
I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.
Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL.

Letter from Peter Cooper
To Horatio Seymour.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13, 1868.

To Hon. Horatio Seymour:

MY DEAR SIR—In the last letter I had the honor to address to you, I had the pleasure to thank you for the prompt answer to a former letter, and for the assurance I received that "we agreed in the end to be realized, namely, the restoration of the Union and the preservation of the Constitution." You will recollect that I then stated I was so deeply impressed with the absolute necessity of maintaining the Union and the Constitution that I desired to see all the powers that God and nature had given to us brought into requisition to save our country from being dissevered and made the sport of foreign and domestic Saracens.

I feared then, as I fear now, the danger of our being drawn into error by men who have no faith in a real democratic form of government. In that letter I stated that I was then, and I have still continued, to the 78th year of my age, to be a firm believer in a truly democratic republican form of government—I mean a government founded on those fundamental principles of truth and justice which our fathers declared were self evident, namely:—"That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; that to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."

In the very first words of the Constitution, formed by our fathers, it is declared that "We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

Our fathers, in forming for us this Constitution, believed that they had embodied in the forms of law, the highest wisdom, virtue and intelligence of a whole people. They meant to make the wisdom, the virtue, and the intelligence of the people the means to insure all the blessings required to make us a nation with all the powers necessary "to establish justice," and "to promote the general welfare." To enable the people to do this in the most convenient manner, they declared in the first article of the Constitution that. "All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives."

They then describe the mode and manner by which the people's representatives shall be chosen, who are to make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the powers of Congress, and all other powers vested by the Constitution in the Government of the United States, or in any Department thereof. Among these powers there is nothing plainer than the intention of the framers of the Constitution to vest in the people's representatives the right to suspend the writ of habeas corpus whenever in their judgment "the public safety may require it," to suppress rebellion or repel invasion.

I have been led to address this letter to you, as standing at the head of the Democratic party—a party with which I continued to act so long as I believed it was laboring to promote the greatest good of our common country; but when I became convinced that the Democratic party, with which I had been so long connected, was lending its power and influence to sustain men and measures that had so far perverted the Constitution of our country as to deny the rights of mannood to four millions of human beings—and when I saw that I was acting with a party which was lending its influence to men and measures that were raising up in our country the vilest form of an aristocracy—an aristocracy that claimed it as a right that "property should own labor," and claimed the right to mix their blood with the black race, and then sell their children to be onslaved with all their posterity, then I consider it my duty to my country to abandon a party that had abandoned the great principles of truth and justice. What tongue can describe the horrors of a system that allowed a father to sell his child, who may have had seven-eighths of white blood in his veins, to a brutal master, who had the power to confine him on a plantation, under a more brutal overseer; perhaps a Northern man, with his conscience callous to every human feeling, and whose principal recommendation might be that he could whip out of the unprotected slave the greatest amount of labor! Thomas Jefferson might well say, in view of such a state of things, "I tremble for my country when I remember that God is just."

John Wesley has well declared that such a system contains within itself the sum of all villainy. The enormity of human slavery will appear from the following advertisement, copied from the Georgia Messenger: "Run Away—My man, Fountaine; has holes in his ears, a scar on the right side of his forehead, has been shot in the hind parts of his legs, is marked on his back badly, Macon."

We might well have said, in view of a system that allowed such cruelty, as God is just, that the time must come when those great principles of our Declaration of Independence that declares "that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," must be vindicated in our own country. Allow me to repeat what I said in my last letter, namely: that I, who served my country in person and by substitute from the commencement of the war with England to its close, feel that I have a right to plead with my countrymen of every shade of political opinion, and to beseech them by every consideration that can move our manhood to consider carefully the dangers that threaten us as a nation.

It has been to me, for years, a source of profound regret to find so many of those, whom I have esteemed and honored as friends, taking part with and forming all kind of excuses for men who have done all that was possible to destroy our Union of States; and now I regret to find those very friends calling themselves Democrats; and, at the same time, uniting with those who were leaders in the Rebellion, and striving to aid them to build up what they are pleased to call "a White Man's government," by which they mean to hold 4,000,000 of human beings under a ban or disqualification that will prove as destructive to their happiness as the slavery from which they have been delivered. I have been at a loss to see how a mind so elevated as yours could for a moment consider it possible for a democratic government to enact a course of class legislation that would make one law for the white man and another for the black man. John Stuart Mill has said with great propriety that "There is no true democracy where large classes of a community are denied equality of political rights."—He further declares that "Every Government which permanently divides the people into a governing part, and a governed part, is an aristocratic Government, by whatever name it may be called."

I find that the very men who profess so much concern for the preservation of the Constitution, are now most earnestly laboring to make proselytes for a white man's government, which can only be had by legislating for a class, thereby adopting a principle that is at war with the very letter and spirit of the Constitution which they profess so much to revere. Such a course is as inconsistent as the profession and practice of President Johnson. He declared at one time that "treason against the Government is the highest crime that can be committed," and that those engaged in it "should suffer all its penalties." "Treason," he said, "must be made odious, and traitors must be punished and impoverished." He went so far as to say, "They must not only be punished, but their social power must be destroyed; if not, they maintain an ascendancy, and may again become numerous enough for treason to become respectable. He said, "After making treason odious, every Union man should be remunerated out of the pockets of those who have inflicted the great suffering on our country."

He then said, "I hold it a solemn obligation, in every one of these States, where the Rebel armies have been beaten back or expelled, I care not how small the number of Union men may be, if enough to man the ship of State, I hold it to be a high duty to protect and secure to them a republican form of government until they gain strength. They must not be smothered by inches."

In reference to a Convention to restore the States, he asked: "Who shall restore them? Shall the men who gave all their influence and means to destroy the Government? Are they to participate in the great work of re-organizing the Government, who brought this misery on the States? If this be so, then it is said in truth that all the precious blood of our brave soldiers and officers will have been lost, and all our battle-fields will have been made memorable in vain."

He then asked, "Why all this carnage?" and said "it was that treason might be put down and traitors punished." He said "traitors should take a back seat in the work of restoration." He said "the traitor has ceased to be a citizen, and in forming rebellion has become a public enemy, and has lost his right to vote with loyal men."

He said that the great plantations of the traitors "must be seized and divided into small farms and sold to honest, industrious men;" also, "The day for protecting the lands and negroes of these authors of rebellion is past."

To cap the climax of inconsistency with all that he has since done and tried to accomplish, he said that he had been deeply pained by some things that had come under his observation. He said, "We get men in command who, under the influence of flattery, fawning and caressing, grant protection to rich traitors, while the poor Union man stands out in the cold." He went on and said that "traitors can get lucrative employment while loyal men are pushed aside."

He said, in relation to reconstructing the Southern States, that "We must not be in too much of a hurry. It is better to let them reconstruct themselves, than to force them into it." But as soon as he became President, we find him hurrying Reconstruction on a plan or policy of his own, and resisting, with all the power he possessed, the mild measures prepared by Congress, and intended to enable the Rebel States to reconstruct themselves with the least possible difficulty or delay.

It is difficult for one to imagine how any honest, intelligent man can join with President Johnson, and charge the majority of Congress with being a class of radicals and traitors, "hanging on the skirts of a Government which they are trying to destroy."

It has been equally difficult for me to form an apology for such unreasonable charges as I find in your speeches and others claiming to be Democrats—against an administration that has had to contend with every form of difficulty and misrepresentation that the ingenuity of those who were in rebellion against the Government, and of all who were in sympathy with them, could invent.

I regret to find in several of your speeches that you make no allowance for the extraordinary and trying circumstances through which the Government has been compelled to pass—circumstances that would have made it wise and proper to have raised money by forced loans, if no other means could have been found to save the nation's life.

You have said truly in your late speech that the Republican party "denounces all forms of repudiation as a national crime." You then try to throw on that party the odium of a deliberate design to repudiate the national debt.

The repudiation of the national debt is one of the last acts that the Republican party will ever tolerate or allow.

I have been pained to find in your several speeches a course of reasoning that is tending to revive the rebellious spirit throughout our Southern States—a course of reasoning that has already won for you the enthusiastic support of those who were most prominent in the Rebellion, and of all who are in sympathy with them throughout our country.

I am sorry to see in your speeches an effort to prejudice the laboring population with the statement that the Government is introducing a system of unjust and unequal taxation.

It is certain that our Government could never stand in the presence of such laws as prevailed throughout the Southern States before the Rebellion; laws that made it a crime to "unbind the heavy burden, and let the captive go free;" laws that made it a crime to teach the poor helpless slave to read and write, fearing that a knowledge of the Declaration of Independence, that declares the unalienable right of every man to his life, his liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, would make him unwilling longer to remain a slave.

To talk of such a system and such laws as have prevailed at the South being democratic, is to talk of a living body without an animating spirit.

The Cincinnati Catholic Telegraph, the official organ of the Catholic church in the West, has said, with great propriety, that "the interest of humanity and the welfare of white labor, in particular, are involved in the question of slavery more than in any other, and it is the duty of men to prepare their minds conscientiously that they may, as far as possible, maintain what is best for the people. Every one acknowledges that slavery is an evil. No man who is free would ever consent to be a slave. It is abhorrent to his nature. No one can allege only to reduce a human being to that miserable condition. It is detestable to mind and heart. And moreover he who reduces a free man to slavery is excommunicated by the Catholic Church.—Slavery was the cause of our national troubles. It was for slavery that the war was commenced, and the blood of the brave men who have fallen on both sides has been shed by this monster. The hope of its restoration is not abandoned. There are multitudes of men who wound love to see it in the ascendant as it was before." Never were truer words said than that "slavery was the cause of our national troubles."

Notwithstanding all the misery that slavery and the war has brought on our country, let us assure all who took part in the Rebellion that we intend to secure for them and for ourselves the constitutional guaranty of a republican form of government, which is the greatest earthly blessing our nation can possess.

It has been with more than ordinary sorrow that I find among the errors of your late speech other grave charges against the Republican party.

You say it has adopted "a policy of hate, of waste, and of military despotism," in all of which you are as much in error as you are when you state that the Republican party has expended $500,000,000 of the taxes drawn from the people of this country "to uphold a despotic military authority, and to crush out the life of the States."

The facts, as shown by Mr. Blaine in Congress, are that only a very small part of the amount you name was expended in maintaining the authority of the Government over the Rebel States. Let us unite to frown down that spirit of rebellion that found encouragement in the Democratic Convention that met in Chicago, when it virtually recognized the principle of Secession and Disunion as an established fact, by proposing "a cessation of hostilities" and a call for a convention of all the States to meet in their sovereign capacity and deliberate with men who were then in active rebellion, putting forth all their efforts to overthrow the Government by force.

You charge the Republican party with "proposing to deprive the people of the South of their right to vote for Presidential Electors." You then say that "the first bold steps are taken to destroy the right of suffrage."

This reasoning is unaccountable in view of the fact that the Republican party has been constantly making efforts to extend the elective franchise on a principle of equal rights to every man without regard to country, caste or color.

Nothing could be more unfair than your charge that the Republican party intends that "there shall be no peace or order at the South save that which is made by arbitrary power." I will close this long letter by saying that I believe it would be the proudest day of your life if I could persuade you to unite with all who are laboring to secure a purely Democratic Republican administration of our State and General Government. For one, I desire to do what I can to secure peace and prosperity to a country which in the course of nature I must soon leave, but with an ardent desire that it may forever remain a glorious Union of States, where goodness and greatness shall be the motto and inspiration of the people.

I remain, very respectfully,
PETER COOPER.

☞The official vote of Vermont is as follows: Page, Republican, 42,615; Edwards, Democrat, 15,289. Page's majority 27,326.

PROPHETIC.—"Your President I cannot be," said Seymour when nominated. Who would have thought he was so good a prophet.

Shall it be 1200? Yes.

The Union Republican majority in this county on the State ticket is 975. Shall it be 1200 in November? It can be if every Republican falls into line and does his whole duty. Front face—and forward! and the total will be at least 1200!

BUT TWO WEEKS.

Tuesday the 3d of November is near at hand. Grant men you have but two weeks to work. To work then in earnest, and have every vote out. The opposition, though defeated and disheartened, will make a strong effort to overcome our State majority.

☞Hon. D. J. Morrell is re-elected to Congress from this district. His opponent was a good soldier and is a perfect gentleman, but Mr. Morrell's popularity was too heavy to overcome.

☞Samuel T. Brown, Esq., of this place, and Amos H. Martin, of Mifflintown, our nominees for the Legislature, have both been elected by handsome majorities. Mr. Brown, we are sure, will be honest and a working member of the House, and will not deceive his constituents.

☞We are happy to state that Vallandigham who was running against Gen. Shenck for Congress in Ohio, has been beaten. Voorhees, that other Democrat, we are sorry to state, is elected to Congress from Indiana. When will the Democratic party learn to put aside such men.

☞The Democrats elected their Mayor, District Attorney, and other officers in Philadelphia, but we understand the seats will be contested, and perhaps Republican candidates who had the largest number of legal votes, will be declared elected and take charge of the offices.

☞Would-be Vice President Blair is not backward in making public his atrocious sentiments. In a speech in St. Louis on Friday night last, speaking of the probable election of Grant, he said:—"a military dictatorship would be established, and Grant would never leave the Presidential mansion alive." So. Then Gen. Grant is to be assassinated. Well, we'll risk that.

COVODE PROBABLY DEFEATED.—John Covode is probably defeated in the district composed of the counties of Westmoreland, Fayette and Indiana, by Henry D. Foster. The majority against him in the district is 41 votes. He intends to contest the seat. He alleges that he can have thrown out over five hundred illegal votes in the counties of Fayette and Westmoreland.

The Slanderers Rebuked.

The vote for Captain Neely by the true friends of a brave soldier should be a lesson long to be remembered by the men who made themselves prominent in the circulation of low slanders against him. Captain Neely is elected—and he will soon be a citizen of our town—and we feel very confident that he will prove himself to be quite as good a man and citizen as any who attempted to blacken his character.

Glory Enough for One Day!

Old Huntingdon did well!

975 MAJORITY!

She Can and Will Do Better!

EVERY MAN NOMINATED BY THE UNION REPUBLICAN PARTY

TRIUMPHANTLY ELECTED!

It is with peculiar pleasure we refer to the Union Republican vote of old Huntingdon. The contest was a warm one. The so-called Democratic organization was perfect in every district. It was a unit. The will of one man was the will of every member of the party. It worked solid, and presented a solid front to reduce our party majority, and a solid front to defeat a portion of our ticket. It failed in reducing our party majority—it failed in defeating Capt. NEELY, the best abused man up for election. While Captain NEELY did not receive the full vote of his party in every district, he received a handsome majority—a majority much larger than any member of the opposition party would agree he could have. Where he was "cut" can be seen by referring to the table. Perhaps some of the "cutting" was unintentional, as the opposition had spurious tickets freely thrown around at the polls in every election district, and many of them may have been voted without first carefully examining every name upon them. Some of the districts done much better than we expected they could do, while two or three fell short of what we expected. As a whole, they all done nobly, and we feel sure every district will do better in November.

CAN THEY BE KEPT IN LINE?

The news from every State in which elections were held last week has completely demoralized the Democratic party—completely outflanked the rebel leaders and their army of followers. Those most anxious for success, as soon as they learned the result in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, struck for a new programme by which reinforcements could be secured. They demanded the withdrawal of Seymour and Blair and the nomination of new candidates. But in this, thus far, they have met with heavy opposition from many of the most prominent leaders of the defeated party. The so called Democratic journals everywhere are sorely perplexed at their situation; they want to, and they don't want to, surrender, to the demands of the more loyal of their party followers. With Seymour and Blair they feel that all is lost, but to come down to a change of candidates, would seem to them like surrendering to the masses—to the people of their party—a class they never condescended to consult in putting up candidates. The so-called Democracy in the North only consulted the Rebel leaders and their warm sympathizers in the New York Convention when Seymour and Blair were put up as candidates, and now that they are up half the leaders will hold on to them to the end no matter what the efforts may be to remove them. It matters little to the loyal Grant army what the opposition may or may not do to try to make their rough road smooth er,—the verdict of the people has gone forth, and Grant and Colfax will be elected over Seymour and Blair or any other candidates those working in the interest of the Rebels may put up.

"CARPET BAGGERS."—The Southern people, or their leaders rather, don't like Northern men to settle in their midst. They call them "carpet baggers," "scallawags," etc., and their Northern friends on the Democratic side have taken up and use the same terms. The same men used to call the Northern people "mudsills," "greasy mechanics," etc., but those same "mudsills" gave them a sound thrashing not long ago, and the time is coming when the "carpet baggers" from the North will go down South in larger numbers than they do at present, and they will squelch all semblance of treason and secession. We don't mean that they will go down to fight them; oh, no; but they will emigrate and settle there, and by their example they will teach the recent slave holders that labor will reap its own reward, and that the manufacturing interests of that portion of our country can be fully developed. But we can not expect such a reign of peace and prosperity unless Gen. Grant is elected. No "carpet baggers" will be permitted to go South if Seymour is elected, and unless the "carpet baggers" and "scallawags," so-called, are allowed to live among the Southern people, we candidly believe that peace will not be established, for they will have no one to teach them humility and advancement.

Frank Blair's Opinion of Democracy.

As much good is expected from Frank Blair's tour through Pennsylvania, it would be well for the Democracy to have Frank's opinion of them when he was a soldier. Here it is:

"The Democratic party of the present day is Democratic in name, and nothing else. The old Jefferson and Jackson's principles have been abandoned. THE MAN WHO DID NOT ESCAPE THE ROPE BY THREE HOURS IS THE AUTHOR OF ALL TO WHICH THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF THE PRESENT DAY SUBSCRIBES. It has not one scintilla of true Democracy to animate its carcass.

Those marked * are not official.

☞Rumors, well founded ones too, have been afloat since the election, that a movement is being made by some of the Democrats to induce Seymour and Blair to withdraw. The New York World and other journals are taking the lead, but it won't take. A voice comes up from the South saying we want Seymour and Blair, and why; because, if they are elected, (and who believes now that they will?) they will get all they fought for. Seymour and Blair will have to take their turn, like McClellan and Pendleton, and stand a crushing defeat from the friends of Grant and Colfax on the 3d of November. If the Democrats wanted to make a show why did they let Hampton make their platform; why did they yield to all the demands of the Southern Democrats in their convention at New York. They see their error when it is too late; but when 1872 comes in, those who live will see the same thing. The Democratic party it appears, can't learn wisdom from defeat, and it is well enough that it can't.

Union Republicans of Old Huntingdon,

The first battle with the enemy is over, and you came out of the fight with a glorious victory. Stand by your arms for the grand contest in November when Grant will be the General in command. Keep your columns solid and under him you will close up the campaign with a victory that will forever crush treason and rebellion, and bring peace and prosperity to every fireside. Be active and vigilant—and add to your strength by honest means if you can. The victory will most certainly be with Grant and Colfax, but you should make it strong—to the very last man who can be influenced to fight under his banner. Forward—and increase your majorities in every district, and swell your majority in the county to not less than 1200.

General Schofield to Grant.

"I have always believed that the Union could be fully restored only by the men who put down the Rebellion. * * Your election to the Presidency will be the end of our political troubles, as your accession to the command in chief of the army was the end of the Southern Rebellion."—J. M. SCHOFIELD, Brevet Major General.

Congress and the Legislature.

We have not received the official vote of the districts for either Congress or the Legislature, but enough is known to give us Morrell, Brown and Martin by handsome majorities.

Address of the Republican State Central Committee.

ROOMS OF THE UNION REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER 14, 1868.

Republicans of Pennsylvania:

Yesterday you achieved a triumph at the polls scarcely less important in its results than the victory of arms on the field of Gettysburg. The integrity of the Union and the perpetuity of the Republic were secured by the one, its permanent peace and future glory are insured by the other.

Your verdict thus pronounced will be recorded by the American people in November next in a most emphatic condemnation of the party false to the country in the hour of its peril, false to liberty and the rights of man. Every lover of peace and good order congratulates you on your achievements in stripping such an organization of all power or to inflict future injury on the country. Henceforth it must sink under the same obloquy that rests upon the Tories of the Revolution and the Federalists of the war of 1812. Entrusted with power, it wielded it for the dismemberment of the Republic. Confided in by its devotees as the guardian of liberty, it exerted all its energies for the perpetuity of human bondage. Professing reverence for free speech and freedom of the press, it silenced both with bowie-knife and revolver wherever it had supreme control. Assuming to be the guardian of the rights of man, it became the champion of bondage and stood sentinel with baying blood hounds to seize and return the fleeing fugitive, and at last, dissatisfied with the result of a fair election, it raised its hand against the life of the Republic, and, Samson-like, would have buried itself in the ruins of the grandest temple of liberty ever reared by human hands.

It is befitting that a party scarred by such a record should die at the hands of the people whose sense of justice it has outraged, and whose dearest rights it has trampled in the dust.

Republicans of the Keystone? Your brethren throughout the Union have watched the struggle through which you have just passed with intense interest, and its result gladdens every patriot heart. Let not your victory dampen your ardor or relax your energy, but march on with closed ranks and solid columns to complete your victory in November.

GALUSHA A. GROW,
Chairman State Republican Com.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Proclamation by the President---Thursday November 26, the day appointed.

A PROCLAMATION.

In the year which is now drawing to its end the art, the skill and the labor of the people of the United States have been employed with greater diligence and vigor, and on broader fields than ever before, and the fruits of the earth have been gathered into the granary and the storehouse in marvelous abundance, our highways have been lengthened, and new and prolific regions have been occupied. We are permitted to hope that the long protracted political and sectional discussions are at no distant day to give place to returning harmony and fraternal affection throughout the Republic. Many foreign States have entered into liberal agreements with us, while nations which are far off, and which heretofore have been unsocial and exclusive have become our friends. The annual period of rest which we have reached in health and tranquility, and which is crowned with many blessings, is by universal consent a convenient and suitable one for cultivating personal piety and practicing public devotion.

I, therefore, recommend that Thursday, November next, be set apart and observed by all the people of the United States as a day of public praise, thanksgiving and prayer to the Almighty Creator and Divine Ruler of the Universe, by whose ever-watchful, merciful and gracious Providence alone, States and nations, no less than families and individuals, men do live and have their being.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 12th day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1868, and of the independence of the United States the ninety-third.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President:
WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

HOOFLAND'S BITTERS.

Hooflands German Bitters is well known to the invalid. For many years it has been in use, and its reputation is unimpaired. It is not claimed for it that it is competent to perform miracles, but there are many diseases and disabilities which it can reach more readily than any other known remedy, and in all such cases it is an excellent remedy. Dyspepsia, and diseases resulting from a disordered Liver, or a derangement of the digestive faculties, come within its scope, and persons suffering from such diseases have great relief from a fair trial of this celebrated Bitters. This remedy is not alcoholic, contains no rum or whisky, and cannot make drunkards. Its reputation is backed up by testimonials from many eminent Clergymen and others.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with pure Santa Cruz Rum, orange, anise, &c. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases when an Alcoholic Stimulant is necessary. It is a preparation of rare medicinal value, and most agreeable to the palate.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Brief Items.

Chestnuts are pretty plenty—but why so dear?

Our merchants are laying in their fall and winter stock of goods.

At the Pennsylvania State Fair eighty kegs of lager beer were sold on the ground by one man.

A few grains of snow fell here on Saturday morning last. It had the effect of bringing shawls and overcoats into use.

Glowing pictures of coons, roosters, mice and elephants, supported on big type, are now visible in Republican papers.

William McKibben, well known as proprietor of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia, died on Saturday, the 10th inst.

It is stated that the Synod of Philadelphia, in which are included Presbyterian ministers and churches from the Delaware to Hollidaysburg, will meet in Lancaster on the 22d inst.

Half a dozen young Democrats in Johnstown on the night of the election, shouted for "Jeff Davis and the Ku Klux Klan." They will of course vote for Seymour and Blair.

Secret marriages are so common in an Ohio town that the young women can't get beaux. Every man is afraid of courting some other man's wife.

The Democrats are beginning to creep out again. We don't think they will blow so much about carrying Pennsylvania for—who did you say?

The Hollidaysburg Fair was a success throughout. The exhibition of articles was very large and fine, and an immense number of people were in attendance.

L. Marion Clark, who has figured somewhat as an author, poet, and actor, visited Tyrone a few days ago, for the purpose of giving a concert, but took suddenly ill before the concert came off, and died.

Dan Corbett bet he could jump from the bridge over the Susquehanna at Tonawanda, Pa., forty-six feet, to the water below. He made the leap, but struck the water on his stomach, sunk and was seen no more.

In the town of Waterbury, Connecticut, a watch that dates back to 1658, is on exhibition. It is of rough workmanship, having no pendulum spring and no minute hand, only an hour hand, and catgut cord in place of a chain.

We are indebted to our friends in the several townships of the county for sending us the returns of the election early on Wednesday morning last. We hope they will keep it up, as we thereby give all our readers the election returns of the county.

We have to go from home for news. The Blair county Radical has the following item: "Mrs. Nahum Stowell, of Huntingdon, seventy years old, was burned to death on Sunday morning week, her clothing having caught from the flames of the kitchen fire."

Altoona is to have the names of its streets changed to numbers. The streets were named after ladies, such as Annie, Virginia, &c., but now these are to be forsaken and the Council have concluded to adopt something more figurative than sentimental.

We are at all times ready to receive yearly subscriptions for the Globe. The long winter evenings are coming rapidly, and no farmer or working man should fail to improve the opportunity afforded to read his county paper to advantage.

"What's the use of me voting; it don't do any good?" said a disappointed Democrat on Wednesday morning last, when he heard the news. We verily think he is about right. He with many more is in a fair way of making his vote count in November by voting for the people's defender, General Grant.

The Postmaster General has issued an order that on and after the first of January, next, the registration fee on letters registered in and addressed to any part of the United States, shall be fifteen cents, instead of twenty-five cents as at present, to be in all cases fully prepaid in postage stamps affixed to the letter.

An infant son of John Shaffer, of Hollidaysburg, died of hydrophobia, on Wednesday last. The child was bitten by Mr. Shaffer's dog in the latter part of August, and the bite healed like any other wound. No constitutional effects were experienced until Sunday, the 4th inst., about five weeks after the injury, when the child was possessed of all the symptoms peculiar to the second stage of that terrible disease.

A Grand Jollification.

The jubilant Republicans of "ye ancient borough" could not keep their joy pent up on Wednesday last, and accordingly preparations were made for a jollification meeting in the evening. The Tanners Club assembled in the Court House in full force, in the evening, and headed by the silver cornet Band, they marched up to the Castilian Garden and halted until Col. Summer's hand organ was placed in a wagon, when the line of march was taken up amid a din the most inconceivable—the band played, tin horns bellowed, the hand organ whined; the gong sounded, drums beat, the fife pealed, the whistles sounded, tin-pans clattered, rockets glared, boys yelled, men cheered, the women laughed, and everybody was out along the line of the procession to see the sport. After leaving the Garden, the procession paraded through a part of Mifflin st., through two streets of West Huntingdon, and from thence down Hill street to the Diamond, where it halted and the noise subsided. P. M. Lytle, Esq., was called on to make a speech, which he did in a happy style. The speech over, the line of march was again taken up, and was continued down Hill street, up St. Charles to Mifflin, up Mifflin to Montgomery, down to Allegheny, down Allegheny to Smith, up Smith and down Hill to the Court House, where the crowd was addressed by John Scott, S. T. Brown, and John W. Mattern, Esqs.

Such a demonstration was never witnessed before in our borough. The rejoicing was universal among the friends of Grant and Colfax, while the Democrats were inwardly regretting that the palm of victory was so ruthlessly torn from their grasp, and so enjoyed by their enemy. They didn't like the demonstration—nor was it expected that they would. But for that reason perhaps they will get worse and more of it when November comes round.

To the Union Republican Voters of Huntingdon County.

We are happy to congratulate you upon the result of the late election.—Nobly did you discharge your duty to your party, your country, and yourselves. It has sent a thrill of joy into the heart of every loyal citizen of our land; and has made the enemies of freedom and liberty to quail before the victorious hosts of the Union Republican party. "Old mother Huntingdon" came to the rescue manfully by rolling up a majority of nearly one thousand. But let us not think our work done—though we have done well we can do better. We have fought the great battle of Pennsylvania and victory is perched upon our banners. Our brave boys in blue fought and won the battle of Gettysburg, but their victory was not complete until that little man of destiny, General Ulysses S. Grant marshalled his forces and settled the contest in the complete and entire overthrow of armed treason and rebellion at Appomattox. Let us not be content with the victory we have achieved, but let us fight on and work on and the great final contest of this campaign will be settled on the 3d of November. The scene at Appomattox will be re enacted, the combined army of rebels and Democrats will have to surrender to our victorious leader U. S. Grant.

Remember Union Republicans that every effort will be made by our enemies to engender strife and discord in our ranks, but heed not the voice of the tempter; resolve that nothing but unconditional and immediate surrender of every principle in conflict with the principles for which our brave fellow countrymen fought and died will be accepted.

Keep up your township and borough organizations—leave nothing undone to secure a final and decisive victory on the 3d of November. Let every man do his duty in this contest and we will roll up such a majority in Huntingdon county for Grant and Colfax that will make the Seymourites tremble worse than they did at the result of the election of the 13th inst. Let our watchword be actions, fervent, earnest, effectual action, and we will secure permanent peace to our now unsettled and distracted country. In the language of our great leader. "LET US HAVE PEACE."

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

McGUIRE'S

SPANISH HAIR DRESSER

For Promoting the Growth, Beautifying the Hair, And rendering it dark and glossy. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The use of this oil as a hair dresser has been universal in every section of the country in the Spanish Main for centuries.—No preparation of art could give that elegant luxuriance and abundance of hair which have so often been the admiration of travelers in Spain. This oil is highly and delicately perfumed, forming an article unrivaled in excellence, and upon which the Spanish people for many years have set its seal of enduring approval.

McGUIRE'S

Mexican Wild Flowers Shampoo Lotion

For removing dandruff and scurf from the head, whitening and perfuming the skin. This article is entirely different from anything of the kind ever offered in this country and is warranted free from all poisonous substances. This valuable lotion was used by the Emperor Maximilian, and Empress Carlotta of Mexico, and universally used by Mexicans for three hundred years. As a wash for the head—it is cooling, cleansing and refreshing.—When thus used it at once relieves headache.

McGUIRE'S

WILD FLOWERS FOR THE TEETH.

All those who are in favor of white teeth and a pleasant and perfumed breath, should at once use McGuire's Wild Flowers for the Teeth. All these preparations are put up in the most elegant and ornamental manner. We make no exception in saying that they are an ornament to a lady's toilet table, and none complete without them.

Warranted satisfactory or money refunded. Dealers will bear this in mind. Sold by all respectable Druggists in the United States and Canadas. Address orders to
